FOREWORD

We are pleased to present a reprint of the 2017 Handbook on Workers' Statutory Monetary Benefits – an updated and comprehensive material on recent developments in Philippine labor laws and regulations.

Through the years, this Handbook has become a dependable guide not only for workers and employers, but also to students, labor law practitioners, and the general public. The consistently enthusiastic reception extended to this work has prompted us to issue a reprinted edition.

This reprint forms part of our vigorous and strengthened enforcement activities under the new administration. We commit to be steadfast in addressing abuses in employment arrangements while remaining strict yet equitable. Toward such end, we intend to educate stakeholders and inspire a culture of voluntary compliance with labor laws in as many workplaces as possible.

In this edition, we added more detailed illustrations and sample wage computations to facilitate the computation of equivalent monthly rates for daily-paid and monthly-paid workers. Another new item is the enumeration of the regional minimum wage rates prescribed in the latest Wage Orders. We also included entries on the exemption from the minimum wage law of barangay micro business enterprises under the BMBE Act of 2002, as amended by the Go Negosyo Act of 2014.

An equally important development is the inclusion of entries on the income tax exemption on minimum wage earners under R.A. No. 9504; the tax treatment on separation pay and retirement pay; and the tax implication on 13th month pay in view of the passage of R.A. No. 10653 which raised the income tax exemption ceiling to P82,000.

We sincerely hope that, with this Handbook, we can stay true to our mandate of promoting full, decent, and productive employment opportunities for every Filipino worker in every workplace throughout the country.

(Sec. 4 Rule VII-A, Book III of the Rules Implementing the Labor Code). For the computation of the fair and reasonable value of the meals given, the employer may seek assistance from concerned Regional Tripartite Wages and Productivity Board (RTWPBs).

A Kasambahay who works as salesclerk should receive salary in accordance with the prescribed minimum wage which is applicable in the retail and service establishments, under existing Wage Orders.

MINIMUM WAGE

Republic Act No. 6727 (also known as the “Wage Rationalization Act”) mandates the fixing of the minimum wages applicable to different industrial sectors, namely, non-agriculture, agriculture plantation, and non-plantation, cottage/handicraft, and retail/service, depending on the number of workers or capitalization or annual gross sales in some sectors.

The Rules Implementing RA 6727 define the industrial sectors as follows:

“Agriculture” refers to farming in all its branches and, among others, includes the cultivation and tillage of the soil, production, cultivation, growing and harvesting of any agricultural or horticultural commodities, dairying, raising of livestock or poultry, the culture of fish and other aquatic products in farms or ponds, and any activities performed by a farmer or on a farm as an incident to or in conjunction with such farming operations, but does not include the manufacturing and/or processing of sugar, coconut, abaca, tobacco, pineapple, aquatic or other farm products.

“Retail Establishment” is one principally engaged in the sale of goods to end-users for personal or household use. A retail establishment that regularly engages in wholesale activities loses its retail character.

“Service Establishment” is one principally engaged in the sale of service to individuals for their own or household use and is generally recognized as such.

The said law rationalized wage determination by establishing the mechanism and proper standards through the creation of Regional Tripartite Wages and Productivity Boards (RTWPBs) authorized to determine the daily minimum wage rates in the following different regions based on established criteria:

National Capital Region (NCR) or Metro Manila

Cordillera Administrative Region (CAR)

Region 1 - Northern Luzon or Ilocos

Region 2 - Cagayan Valley

Region 3 - Central Luzon

Region 4-A - CALABARZON (Cavite, Laguna, Batangas, Rizal, Quezon)

Region 4-B - MIMAROPA (Mindoro, Marinduque, Romblon, Palawan)

Region 5 - Bicol

Region 6 - Western Visayas

Region 7 - Central Visayas

Region 8 - Eastern Visayas

Region 9 - Western Mindanao or Zamboanga Peninsula

Region 10 - Northern Mindanao

Region 11 - Southern Mindanao or Davao

Region 12 - Central Mindanao or SOCCSKSARGEN (South Cotabato, North Cotabato, Sultan Kudarat-Sarangani, General Santos)

Region 13 - Caraga

Autonomous Region in Muslim Mindanao (ARMM)

The Regional Wage Orders prescribe the daily minimum wage rates per industry per locality within the region and in some instances depending on the number of workers and the capitalization of enterprises. The Wage Orders likewise provide the basis and procedure for application for exemption from compliance therefrom. Some Wage Orders grant allowances instead of wage increases.

A. Coverage

A.1 The wage increases prescribed under Wage Orders apply to all private sector workers and employees receiving the daily minimum wage rates or those receiving up to a certain daily wage ceiling, where applicable, regardless of their position, designation, or status of employment, and irrespective of the method by which their wages are paid, except workers of duly registered Barangay Micro Business Enterprises (BMBEs) with Certificate of Authority issued by the Office of the Municipal or City Treasurer.

A.2 Upon application with and as determined by an RTWPB, based on documentation and other requirements in accordance with applicable rules and regulations issued by the National Wages and Productivity

Commission (NWPC), a company/establishment may be exempted from compliance with a Wage Order for a period not to exceed one (1) year.

C. Basis

The basis of the minimum wage rates prescribed by law shall be the normal working hours of eight (8) hours a day.

D. Monthly-Paid Employees and Daily-Paid Employees

Monthly-paid employees are those who are paid every day of the month, including unworked rest days, special days, and regular holidays. Factor 365 days in a year is used in determining the equivalent monthly salary of monthly-paid employees.

Daily-paid employees are those who are paid on the days they actually worked and on unworked regular holidays.

Computation of the Estimated Equivalent Monthly Rate (EEMR) of Monthly-Paid and Daily-Paid Employees

For monthly-paid employees:

Factor 365 days in a year is used in determining the equivalent annual and monthly salary of monthly-paid employees. To compute their Estimated Equivalent Monthly Rate (EEMR), the procedure is as follows:

$$\frac{\text{Applicable Daily Rate (ADR)} \times 365}{12 \text{ months}} = \text{EEMR}$$

Where 365 days/year	=	298	ordinary working days
		52	rest days
		12	regular holidays
		3	special days
		365	Total equivalent no. of days/year

For daily-paid employees:

The following factors and formula may be used in computing the EEMR of different groups of daily-paid employees for purposes of entitlement to minimum wages and allied benefits under existing laws:

1. For those who are required to work everyday, including Sundays or rest days, special days and regular holidays

$$\frac{\text{Applicable Daily Rate (ADR)} \times 393.5}{12 \text{ months}} = \text{EEMR}$$

Where 393.50 days/year	=	298	ordinary working days
		24	regular holidays x 200%
		67.60	52 rest days x 130%
		3.90	3 special days x 130%
		393.50	Total equivalent no. days/year

2. For those who do not work and are not considered paid on Sundays or rest days

$$\frac{\text{Applicable Daily Rate (ADR)} \times 313^s}{12 \text{ months}} = \text{EEMR}$$

Where 313 days/year	=	298	ordinary working days
		12	regular holidays
		3	special days (if considered paid; if actually worked, this is equivalent to 3.9 days)
		313	Total equivalent no. of days/year

3. For those who do not work and are not considered paid on Saturdays and Sundays or rest days

$$\frac{\text{Applicable Daily Rate (ADR)} \times 261^t}{12 \text{ months}} = \text{EEMR}$$

Where 261 days/year	=	246	ordinary working days
		12	regular holidays
		3	special days (if considered paid; if actually worked, this is equivalent to 3.9 days)
		261	Total equivalent no. of days/year

Without prejudice to existing company policies, practices and/or agreements, the above formula are merely suggestions and may be used as guides in determining the equivalent monthly minimum wage rates.

^s Factor 310 may be used instead of 313 if the 3 special days are not considered paid

^t Factor 258 may be used instead of 261 if the 3 special days are not considered paid

F. Effect of Reduction of Workdays on Wages

In situations where the employer has to reduce the number of regular working days to prevent serious losses, such as when there is a substantial slump in the demand for his/her goods or services or when there is lack of raw materials, the employer may deduct the wages corresponding to the days taken off from the workweek, consistent with the principle of “no work, no pay.” This is without prejudice to an agreement or company policy which provides otherwise.

G. Penalty and Double Indemnity for Violation of the Prescribed Increases or Adjustments in the Wage Rates (RA 8188)

Any person, corporation, trust, firm, partnership, association or entity which refuses or fails to pay any of the prescribed increases or adjustments in the wage rates made in accordance with RA 6727, shall be punished by a fine of not less than Twenty-five Thousand Pesos (₱25,000.00) nor more than One Hundred Thousand Pesos (₱100,000.00) or imprisonment of not less than two (2) years nor more than four (4) years, or both such fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the court: Provided, That any person convicted hereof shall not be entitled to the benefits provided for under the Probation Law.

The employer concerned shall be ordered to pay an amount equivalent to double the unpaid benefits owing to the employees: Provided, That payment of indemnity shall not absolve the employer from the criminal liability imposable hereof.

If the violation is committed by a corporation, trust, firm, partnership, association or any other entity, the penalty of imprisonment shall be imposed upon the entity’s responsible officers, including, but not limited to, the president, vice-president, chief executive officer, general manager, managing director or partner.

I. Minimum Wage of Workers Paid by Results

All workers paid by results, including homeworkers and those who are paid on piece rate, takay, pakyaw or task basis, shall receive not less than the prescribed minimum wage rates under the Regional Wage Orders for normal working hours which shall not exceed eight (8) hours a day, or a proportion thereof.

C. Regular Holidays

Every employee covered by the Holiday Pay Rule is entitled to the minimum wage rate (daily basic wage and COLA). This means that the employee is entitled to at least 100% of his/her minimum wage rate even if he/she did not report for work, provided he/she is present or is on leave of absence with pay on the work day immediately preceding the holiday.

Work performed on that day merits at least twice (200%) the wage rate of the employee.

Illustration:

Using the NCR minimum wage rate (basic wage and COLA) of ₱502.00 + ₱10.00 per day for the non-agricultural sector, effective October 5, 2017 under Wage Order No. NCR-21.

For work within eight (8) hours:

Plus 100% of the minimum wage rate of 100% or a total of 200%

Sector/Industry	Rate	Amount
Non-agriculture	₱502.00 + ₱10 COLA	₱512 x 200% = ₱1,024.00

Retail/Service Establishment employing less than 10 workers	₱465.00 + ₱10 COLA	Not covered or exempted
--	-----------------------	-------------------------

Where the holiday falls on the scheduled rest day of the employee, work performed on said day merits at least an additional 30% of the employee's regular holiday rate of 200% or a total of at least 260% (Please see 3. Premium Pay).

When a regular holiday falls on a Sunday, the following Monday shall not be a holiday, unless a proclamation is issued declaring it a special day.

Unless otherwise modified by law, order, or proclamation, the following are the twelve (12) regular holidays in a year under Executive Order No. 292, as amended by Republic Act 9849:

Where the day immediately preceding the holiday is a non-work day in the establishment or the scheduled rest day of the employee, he/she shall not be deemed to be on leave of absence on that day, in which case he/she shall be entitled to the holiday pay if he/she worked on the day immediately preceding the nonwork day or rest day.

E. Successive Regular Holidays

Where there are two (2) successive regular holidays, like Maundy Thursday and Good Friday, an employee may not be paid for both holidays if he/she absents himself/herself from work on the day immediately preceding the first holiday, unless he/she works on the first holiday, in which case he/she is entitled to his/her holiday pay on the second holiday.

F. Temporary or Periodic Shutdown/Cessation of Work

In cases of temporary or periodic shutdown and temporary cessation of work of an establishment, as when a yearly inventory or when the repair or cleaning of machineries and equipment is undertaken, the regular holidays falling within the period shall be compensated in accordance with the Rules Implementing the Labor Code, as amended.

G. Holiday Pay of Certain Employees

1. Where the covered employee is paid on piece-rate basis, his / her holiday pay shall not be less than his/her average daily earnings for the last seven (7) actual work days preceding the regular holiday; provided, however, that in no case shall the holiday pay be less than the applicable statutory minimum wage rate.

Last Day of the Year	December 31

The “no work, no pay” principle applies during special days and on such other special days as may be proclaimed by the President or by Congress.

Workers who are not required or permitted to work on special days are not entitled to any compensation. This, however, is without prejudice to any voluntary practice or provision in the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) providing for payment of wages and other benefits for days declared as special days even if unworked.

On the other hand, work performed on special days merits additional compensation of at least thirty percent (30%) of the basic pay or a total of one hundred thirty percent (130%). Where the employee works on a special day falling on his rest day, he/she shall be entitled to an additional compensation of at least fifty percent (50%) of his/her basic wage or a total of one hundred fifty percent (150%).

2. Special Work Days

For work performed on a declared Special Work Day, an employee is entitled only to his/her daily wage rate. No premium pay is required since work performed on said day is considered work on an ordinary workday.

D. Premium Pay Rates

The COLA shall not be included in the computation of premium pay. The minimum statutory premium pay rates are as follows:

1. For work performed on rest days or on special days:
Plus 30% of the daily basic rate of 100% or a total of 130%.

2. For work performed on a rest day which is also a special day:
Plus 50% of the daily basic rate of 100% or a total of 150%.

3. For work performed on a regular holiday which is also the employee's rest day (not applicable to employees who are not covered by the holiday-pay rule). Plus 30% of the regular holiday rate of 200% based on his/her daily basic wage rate or a total of 260%.

Sector/Industry	Rate	Amount

D. Stipulated Overtime Rates

Generally, the premium pay for work performed on rest days, special days, or regular holidays is included as part of the regular rate of the employee in the computation of overtime pay for overtime work rendered on said days, especially if the employer pays only the minimum overtime rates prescribed by law.

The employees and employer, however, may stipulate in their collective agreement the payment for overtime work at rates higher than those provided by law.

2. If the existing paternity leave benefit is less than that provided in RA 8187, the employer shall adjust the existing benefit to cover the difference.

Where a company policy, contract, or collective bargaining agreement provides for an emergency or contingency leave without specific provisions on paternity leave, the employer shall grant to the employee seven (7) calendar days of paternity leave.

THIRTEENTH-MONTH PAY

(PD 851)

A. Coverage

All employers are required to pay their rank and file employees thirteenth-month pay, regardless of the nature of their employment and irrespective of the methods by which their wages are paid, provided they worked for at least one (1) month during a calendar year. The thirteenth-month pay should be given to the employees not later than December 24 of every year.

B. Definition of Rank-and-File Employees

The Labor Code, as amended, distinguishes a rank-and-file employee from a managerial employee. A managerial employee is one who is vested with powers or prerogatives to lay down and execute management policies and/or to hire, transfer, suspend, layoff, recall, discharge, assign, or discipline employees, or to effectively recommend such managerial actions. All employees not falling within this definition are considered rank-and-file employees.

The above distinction shall be used as guide for the purpose of determining who are rank-and-file employees entitled to the thirteenth-month pay.

C. Minimum Amount

The thirteenth-month pay shall not be less than one-twelfth (1/12) of the total basic salary earned by an employee in a calendar year.

The "basic salary" of an employee for the purpose of computing the thirteenth-month pay shall include all remunerations or earnings paid by his or her employer for services rendered. It does not include allowances and monetary benefits which are not considered or integrated as part of the regular or basic salary, such as the cash equivalent of unused vacation and sick leave credits, overtime, premium, night shift differential and holiday pay, and cost of living allowance (COLA). However, these salary-related benefits should be included as part of the basic salary in the computation of the thirteenth-month pay if these are treated as part of the basic salary of the employees, through individual or collective agreement, company practice or policy.

D. Formula And Computation of 13th Month Pay

$$\frac{\text{Total basic salary earned during the year}}{12 \text{ months}} = \text{proportionate } 13^{\text{th}} \text{ month pay}$$

Illustration:

Using the basic wage in the National Capital Region at ₱481.00 (from January 1, 2017 to October 4, 2017) and ₱502.00 (from October 5, 2017 to December 31, 2017)^y per day and a six-day workweek or an equivalent Monthly Basic Salary of ₱12,546.08 and ₱13,093.83, respectively, to wit:

January	no absence	₱12,546.08
February	no absence	₱12,546.08
March	1day leave w/pay	₱12,546.08
April	no absence	₱12,546.08
May	2 days leave w/pay	₱12,546.08
June	2 days leave w/pay	₱12,546.08
July	no absence	₱12,546.08
August	2 days leave w/pay	₱12,546.08
September	on maternity leave ^z	no salary
October	on maternity leave	no salary
November	no absence	₱13,093.83
December	5 days leave w/o pay	₱10,583.83
Total basic salary earned for the year		₱124,046.30

$$\frac{\text{₱124,046.30}}{12 \text{ months}} = \text{₱10,337.20 is the proportionate } 13^{\text{th}} \text{ month pay}$$

^y COLA of P15.00 under Wage Order Nos. NCR-18 and NCR-19 is not included in the basic salary in computing 13th month pay

^z The 2 months of maternity leave are not included in the computation of 13th month pay because the female employee has no earnings from the company for the period.

E. Exempted Employers

The following employers are not covered by PD 851:

1. The government and any of its political subdivisions, including government-owned and controlled corporations, except those corporations operating essentially as private subsidiaries of the government;
2. Employers who are already paying their employees thirteenth-month pay or more in a calendar year or its equivalent at the time of the issuance of PD 851;
3. Persons in the personal service of another in relation to such workers; and
4. Employers of those who are paid on purely commission, boundary or task basis, and those who are paid a fixed amount for performing specific work, irrespective of the time consumed in the performance thereof (except those workers who are paid on piece-rate basis, in which case their employer shall grant them thirteenth-month pay).

As used herein, "workers paid on piece-rate basis" shall refer to those who are paid a standard amount for every piece or unit of work produced that is more or less regularly replicated, without regard to the time spent in producing the same.

The term "its equivalent" as used in item D.2 above shall include Christmas bonus, midyear bonus, cash bonuses, and other payments amounting to not less than one-twelfth (1/12) of the basic salary but shall not include cash and stock dividends, cost of living allowance, and all other allowances regularly enjoyed by the employee, as well as nonmonetary benefits.

F. Time of Payment of Thirteenth-Month Pay

The thirteenth-month pay shall be paid not later than December 24 of every year. An employer, however, may give to his or her employees one-half (1/2) of the thirteenth-month pay before the opening of the regular school year and the remaining half on or before December 24 of every year. The frequency of payment of this monetary benefit may be the subject of an agreement between the employer and the recognized/collective bargaining agent of the employees.

G. Thirteenth-Month Pay for Certain Types of Employees

1. Employees who are paid on piecework basis are entitled to the thirteenth-month pay.
2. Employees who are paid a fixed or guaranteed wage plus commission are also entitled to the thirteenth-month pay, based on their earnings during the calendar year (i.e., on both their fixed or guaranteed wage and commission).

In the consolidated cases of Boie Takeda Chemicals, Inc. vs. Dionisio de la Serna, G.R. No. 92174 December 10, 1993, and Philippine Fuji Xerox Corporation vs. Cresenciano B. Trajano and Philippine Fuji Xerox Employees Union, G.R. No. 102552 December 10, 1993, the Supreme Court ruled that commissions, while included in the generic term wage, are not part of "basic salary/wage" and therefore should not be included in computing the thirteenth-month pay. Thus:

In remunerative schemes consisting of a fixed or guaranteed wage plus commission, the fixed or guaranteed wage is patently the "basic salary" for this is what the employee receives for a standard work period. Commissions are given for extra efforts exerted in consummating sales or other related transactions. They are, as such, additional pay, which this Court has made clear do not form part of the "basic salary" (228 SCRA 329 [1993]).

3. Employees with multiple employers

Government employees working part-time in a private enterprise, including private educational institutions, as well as employees working in two or more private firms, whether on full-time or part-time basis, are entitled to the thirteenth-month pay from all their private employers, regardless of their total earnings from each of their employers.

H. Thirteenth-Month Pay of Resigned or Separated Employee

An employee who has resigned or whose services are terminated at any time before the time of payment of the thirteenth-month pay is entitled to this monetary benefit in proportion to the length of time he or she has worked during the year, reckoned from the time he or she has started working during the calendar year up to the time of his or her resignation or termination from the service. Thus, if he or she worked only from January to September, his or her proportionate thirteenth-month pay should be equal to one-twelfth (1/12) of his or her total basic salary earned during that period.

I. Non-inclusion in Regular Wage

The thirteenth-month pay is not part of the regular wage of employees for purposes of determining overtime and premium payments, fringe benefits, contributions to the State Insurance Fund, Social Security System, National Health Insurance Program, and private retirement plans.

J. Coverage from Income Tax of the 13th Month Pay

13th month pay and other benefits, such as productivity incentives and Christmas bonus, not exceeding Eighty-Two Thousand Pesos (₱82,000.00) are exempt from taxation.^{aa}

Revenue Regulations No. 3-2015, which implements R.A. No. 10653, emphasized that the amount of ₱82,000.00 shall only apply to the 13th month pay and other benefits prescribed under the provisions of Section 2.78.1 (B) (11) of RR No. 2-98, as amended, and shall in no case apply to other compensation received by an employee under an employer-employee relationship, such as basic salary and other allowances.

SEPARATION PAY

(Articles 298-299^{bb})

Separation pay is given to employees in instances covered by Articles 298 and 299 (formerly Articles 283 and 284) of the Labor Code of the Philippines. An employee's entitlement to separation pay depends on the reason or ground for the termination of his or her services. An employee may be terminated for just cause (i.e., gross and habitual neglect of duty, fraud, or commission of a crime), and other similar causes as enumerated under Article 297 (formerly Article 282) of the Labor Code and, generally, may not be entitled to separation pay.^{cc} On the other hand, where the termination is for authorized causes, separation pay is due.

A. One-Half (1/2) Month Pay per Year of Service

An employee is entitled to receive a separation pay equivalent to one-half (1/2) month pay for every year of service, a fraction of at least six (6) months being considered as one (1) whole year, if his/her separation from the service is due to any of the following authorized causes:

1. Retrenchment to prevent losses (i.e., reduction of personnel effected by management to prevent losses);
2. Closure or cessation of operation of an establishment not due to serious losses or financial reverses; and
3. When the employee is suffering from a disease not curable within a period of six (6) months and his/her continued employment is prejudicial to his/her health or to the health of his/her co-employees.

In no case will an employee get less than one (1) month separation pay if the separation is due to the above stated causes.

^{bb} Formerly Articles 283-284 renumbered pursuant to DOLE Department Advisory No. 1, Series of 2015 issued on 21 July 2015.

^{cc} The Supreme Court has ruled in certain cases that separation pay shall be granted the workers.

B. One-Month Pay per Year of Service

An employee is entitled to separation pay equivalent to his/her one-month pay for every year of service, a fraction of at least six (6) months being considered as one whole year, if his/her separation from service is due to any of the following:

1. Installation by employer of labor-saving devices;
2. Redundancy, as when the position of the employee has been found to be excessive or unnecessary in the operation of the enterprise; and
3. Impossible reinstatement of the employee to his or her former position or to a substantially equivalent position for reasons not attributable to the fault of the employer, as when the reinstatement ordered by a competent authority cannot be implemented due to closure or cessation of operations of the establishment/employer, or the position to which he or she is to be reinstated no longer exists and there is no substantially equivalent position in the establishment to which he or she can be assigned.^{dd}

C. Notice of Termination

The employer may terminate the employment of any employee due to the above-mentioned authorized causes by serving a written notice on the employee and the Department of Labor and Employment through its regional office having jurisdiction over the place of business at least one (1) month before the intended date thereof.

D. Basis of Separation Pay

The computation of separation pay of an employee shall be based on his/her latest salary rate.

E. Inclusion of Regular Allowance in the Computation

In the computation of separation pay, it would be error not to integrate the allowance with the basic salary. The salary base properly used in computing the separation pay should include not just the basic salary but also the regular allowances that an employee has been receiving.^{ee}

^{ee} Planters' Products, Inc. vs. NLRC, G.R. No. 78524, January 20, 1989.

F. Coverage from Income Tax of Separation Pay

Exempted from taxation is the separation pay received by an employee as a result of his/her separation from the service of the employer due to death, sickness or other physical disability or for other cause beyond the control of said employee such as retrenchment, redundancy or cessation of business operations.^{ff}

RETIREMENT PAY

(Article 302⁹⁹)

A. Coverage

1. Employees shall be retired upon reaching the age of sixty (60) years or more but not beyond sixty-five (65) years old [and have served the establishment for at least five (5) years].
2. This benefit applies to all employees except:
 - 1) government employees;
 - 2) employees of retail, service and agricultural establishments/operations regularly employing not more than ten (10) employees.

B. Amount of Retirement Pay

The minimum retirement pay shall be equivalent to one-half (1/2) month salary for every year of service, a fraction of at least six (6) months being considered as one (1) whole year.

For the purpose of computing retirement pay, "one-half month salary" shall include all of the following:

1. Fifteen (15) days salary based on the latest salary rate;
2. Cash equivalent of five (5) days of service incentive leave;
3. One-twelfth (1/12) of the thirteenth-month pay.
 $(1/12 \times 365/12 = .083 \times 30.41 = 2.5)$

Thus, "one-half month salary" is equivalent to 22.5 days (Capitol Wireless, Inc. v. Honorable Secretary Ma. Nieves R. Confesor, G. R. No. 117174, November 13, 1996).

The COLA shall not be included in the computation of retirement pay.

Illustration:

$$\text{Minimum Retirement Pay} = \text{Daily Rate}^{\text{hh}} \times 22.5 \text{ days} \times \text{number of years in service}$$

Other benefits may be included in the computation of the retirement pay upon agreement of the employer and the employee or if provided in the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA).

C. Retirement Benefits under a Collective Bargaining Agreement or Applicable Contract

Any employee may retire or be retired by his or her employer upon reaching the retirement age established in the collective bargaining agreement (CBA) or other applicable agreement/contract and shall receive the retirement benefits granted therein; provided, however, that such retirement benefits shall not be less than the retirement pay required under RA 7641, and provided further that if such retirement benefits under the agreement are less, the employer shall pay the difference.

Where both the employer and the employee contribute to a retirement fund pursuant to the applicable agreement, the employer's total contributions and the accrued interest thereof should not be less than the total retirement benefits to which the employee would have been entitled had there been no such retirement benefits' fund. If such total portion from the employer is less, the employer shall pay the deficiency.

D. Retirement Benefits of Workers who are Paid by Results

For covered workers who are paid by results and do not have a fixed monthly salary rate, the basis for the determination of the salary for fifteen (15) days shall be their average daily salary (ADS). The ADS is derived by dividing the total salary or earnings for the last twelve months reckoned from the date of retirement by the number of actual working days in that particular period, provided that the determination of rates of payment by results are in accordance with the established regulations.

^{hh} Cebu Institute of Technology vs. Ople, GR No. 58870, Dec. 18, 1987- Existing laws exclude allowances from the basic salary or wage in the computation of the amount of retirement and other benefits payable to an employee.

E. Retirement Benefit of Part-time Workers

Part-time workers are also entitled to retirement pay of “one-half month salary” for every year of service under RA 7641 after satisfying the following conditions precedent for optional retirement: (a) there is no retirement plan between the employer and the employee and (b) the employee should have reached the age of sixty (60) years, and should have rendered at least five (5) years of service with the employer.

Applying the foregoing principle, the components of retirement benefit of part-time workers may likewise be computed at least in proportion to the salary and related benefits due them.

F. Retirement Benefit of Underground or Surface Mine Employees under Republic Act No. 8558 as amended by Republic Act No. 10757ⁱⁱ

The retirement age of underground or surface mine employees has been reduced to a much lower age. For this purpose, an underground or surface mine employee refers to any person employed to extract mineral deposits underground or in the surface, or to work in excavations or workings such as shafts, winzes, tunnels, drifts, crosscuts, raises, working places whether abandoned or in use beneath or in the earth’s surface for the purpose of searching for and extracting mineral deposits. Moreover, surface mine workers shall only include mill-plant workers, electrical, mechanical and tailings pond personnel.

In the absence of a retirement plan or other applicable agreement providing for retirement benefits of underground mine employees in the establishment, an employee may retire upon reaching the compulsory retirement age of sixty (60) years or upon optional retirement at the age of fifty (50) years, provided he/she has served for at least five (5) years as an underground mine employee or in underground mine of the establishment.

Under the law, upon optional or compulsory retirement, the employee is also entitled to the proportionate thirteenth-month pay for the calendar year and to the cash equivalent of accrued leave benefits.

J. Coverage from Income Tax of Retirement Pay

Exempted from taxation are the retirement benefits received under RA 7641 (now Article 302 herein) and those received by officials and employees of private firms, whether individual or corporate, in accordance with a reasonable private benefit plan maintained by the employer: Provided, That the retiring official or employee has been in the service of the same employer for at least ten (10) years and is not less than fifty (50) years of age at the time of his retirement: Provided, further, That the benefits granted under this subparagraph shall be availed of by an official or employee only once.

For purposes herein, the term 'reasonable private benefit plan' means a pension, gratuity, stock bonus or profit-sharing plan maintained by an employer for the benefit of some or all of his officials or employees, wherein contributions are made by such employer for the officials or employees, or both, for the purpose of distributing to such officials and employees the earnings and principal of the fund thus accumulated, and wherein it is provided in said plan that at no time shall any part of the corpus or income of the fund be used for, or be diverted to, any purpose other than for the exclusive benefit of the said officials and employees.^{kk}

Savings or Provident Savings Program is a fast, easy and affordable way for a member to save for his future needs. The contributions that a member makes together with the employer counterpart are credited to his Total Accumulated Value (TAV). A member contributing two percent of his monthly compensation doubles his savings immediately with the addition of the employer counterpart contribution. Meanwhile, a member contributing one percent of his monthly compensation triples his savings as the employer counterpart remains at two percent. Aside from being fully guaranteed by the national government, members' contributions are deducted from the gross income prior to computation of the income tax. Members' savings earn annual dividends that are also tax-free. The dividend rate varies depending on the net income of the Fund at yearend.

Short-Term Loan Programs are meant to provide assistance to its members, provided they are active and have made at least 24 monthly contributions. There are two short-term loan programs that a member may avail of when the need arises. The Multi-Purpose Loan Program was designed to help finance members' immediate medical, educational or livelihood needs; minor home improvement, purchase of appliance and furniture, and other related needs. Meanwhile, the Calamity Loan Program is extended to members who have been affected by a recent calamity, as proven by a declaration of calamity in their area of residence.

Housing Programs that an eligible member may avail of in the form of housing loans are either the End-User Financing Program or the Magaang Pabahay, Disenteng Buhay Program. Under the End-User

Financing Program, a member may avail of a loan to finance any of the following (Circular 247):

Under the Magaang Pabahay, Disenteng Buhay Program, a qualified member may purchase an acquired asset of the Fund either in cash or through a housing loan at very reasonable prices. A buyer who purchases an acquired asset in cash is entitled to a 20% discount on the property's sales price, while a buyer who purchases through a housing loan is entitled to a 15% discount on the property's sales price.

The BWC

The Bureau of Working Conditions (BWC) is responsible for the formulation and development of labor standards in the areas of hours of work, occupational safety and health, and other conditions of employment.

In May 1982, the Bureau of Labor Standards, which was created in June 1957 under Reorganization Plan No. 20-A, was renamed the Bureau of Working Conditions. The BWC performs all functions in relation to the formulation of policies and enforcement of labor standards performed by the then Wage Administrative Service and the Industrial Safety Division of the Bureau of Labor.

Vision

The Bureau of Working Conditions envisions well-guided employers and workers committed to a safe, healthful, and productive work environment, adaptive to industry trends and developments, and equitably enjoying the gains of joint endeavors.

Mission

- To formulate policies and initiate legislations on labor standards, based on relevant information culled from monitoring, consultations, networking, and researches.
- To standardize the use of enforcement instruments and to clothe the inspectorate system with strong enforcement authority to ensure compliance with laws and regulations.
- To develop and sustain the capability of enterprises toward self-management of safety and health in workplaces, thus, upholding the principle of shared responsibility between workers and employers.
- To enhance the capability of small enterprises in implementing practical and efficient methods of improving working conditions and productivity.
- To inform and advise the public on labor standards, including occupational safety and health, and on innovative work practices or arrangements.
